INVITATION TO JOIN THE SECOND-TERM EDITORIAL BOARD

Dear Readers,

With the altruistic contributions of all Editorial Board Members, referees and great supports from readers and authors worldwide, Plastic and Aesthetic Research (PAR) has successfully published 12 issues (122 articles in total) since June 2014. Inspired by the great endeavor and confidence of our Editorial Board Members, we intend to recruit new members who are enthusiastic in propelling our journal into the next level in the second-term Editorial Board from June 2016.

If you are one of the eminent experts in the field of plastic and aesthetic research and willing to work with us voluntarily in the next two years, here, we sincerely invite you to apply for the position and join us as an Editorial Board Member.

Please read the following Job Description and let us know whether you are interested in joining us and leading this promising journal. Also, you may learn more about our journal in at http://parjournal.net/.

Job Description

1. Actively submit two or three manuscripts per year;
2. Complete one to three peer-reviews of manuscripts submitted to the journal annually;
3. Increase the influence of PAR, such as promoting it at international conferences;
4. Cite published articles in your SCI articles and recommend associations/societies for cooperation with our journal.

If you are interested in the position, please send us your updated curriculum vitae (including including your full name, titles, affiliation, research interests, impact factor, publications, editorial activities, H-index (acquired from web of science), etc. before May 1 (GMT+8) to par_editor001@parjournal.net.

Should there’s any questions, please feel free to contact us.

Awaiting your joining and guidance! Thank you!
